HSOLIMAN@LYNBERG.COM

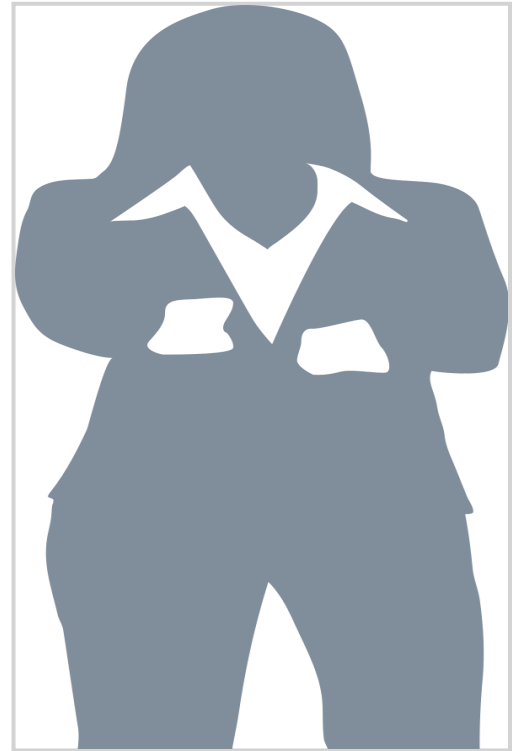

(714) 937-1010

Holly Soliman first started at the firm as a Summer Associate in 2019. After graduating from Chapman University Fowler School of Law in May 2020 and being admitted to the California State Bar in October 2020, Ms. Soliman joined Lynberg & Watkin's Orange County office as an Associate Attorney. Notably, while at Chapman, Ms. Soliman was a member and Vice President of the Moot Court Honor Board, an Academic Fellow teaching assistant for Constitutional Law and Business Associations, and a Student Ambassador for prospective law students.

Prior to joining Lynberg & Watkins, Ms. Soliman's practice included diverse general litigation matters at a boutique law firm as well as government experience with the Orange County District Attorney's Office. Ms. Soliman assists with general civil litigation matters with a focus on defense of public entities involving a variety of claims such as labor and employment, workplace investigations, wrongful death, civil rights, police liability, and general tort liability.

When she's not working, Ms. Soliman enjoys serving on the Board of Directors of Operation One, a non-profit organization that benefits the impoverished in Uganda, traveling around the globe with her husband, taking on interior design & home renovation projects, and planning milestone events for her friends and family.

Traveling, interior design, event-planning, Broadway musicals, spending time with my husband and Pembroke Welsh Corgi
