EXPERIENCE:
Ashley S. Mun began her career at Lynberg & Watkins as a Summer Associate in 2025 and continued working with the firm while attending law school. Following her graduation and admission to the California State Bar, she joined the firm's Los Angeles office as a Litigation Associate, where she represents clients in a variety of civil litigation matters.

Ms. Mun earned her Juris Doctor from Pepperdine Caruso School of Law in May 2026, where she distinguished herself through her academic achievements and involvement in oral advocacy. She served as Co-President of the Trial Team and Senior Editor of the Dispute Resolution Law Journal. During her time at Pepperdine, Ms. Mun participated in multiple trial and moot court competitions, including advancing to the regional finals of the AAJ Student Trial Advocacy Competition. She also received a CALI Excellence for the Future Award in International Commercial Arbitration, earned a Certificate in Dispute Resolution, and was selected for the Order of the Barristers in recognition of her excellence in oral advocacy.

Through her academic and advocacy experiences, Ms. Mun developed a strong foundation in litigation, legal research, writing, and oral advocacy. In practice, she assists clients throughout all stages of litigation. She approaches each matter with diligence, attention to detail, and a commitment to developing thoughtful litigation strategies that advance her clients' interests.

Originally from Seattle, Washington, Ms. Mun relocated to California to pursue her legal career and enjoy the sunshine. Outside the office, Ms. Mun enjoys playing classical piano, exploring new restaurants, and spending time with friends and family.
